Blorkman-Clark Nuptials.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Colonial Hotel on Thursday afternoon when Miss Edith Clark and Mr. Gustav Blorkman were united in marriage by the Reverend Leopold Kroll. The ceremony was performed under an arbor of pepper branches and white asters. During the ceremony the bride stood beneath a wedding veil of white tulle and the groom wore a white tulle ribbon. The bride wearing a handsome gown of embroidered chiffon over ivory satin was a picture of loveliness, as she descended the steps of the Clark cottage. Her lace veil, set low over her hair, was fastened with tiny roses and pearls. Miss Mary Clark attended her sister as bridesmaid. Mr. Blorkman was supported by Mr. Percy Deverill. The bride couple were preceded by Harry Clark, a brother of the bride, and Harold Hayden, who scattered flowers on their path.

After the wedding, refreshments were served and the happy bride was the first to cut the large wedding cake which was placed beneath an arbor of greens and pink roses.

Mrs. Blorkman is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark of Plainsfield, New Jersey, and has been visiting in Honolulu since February.

Mr. Blorkman, who is a prosperous young business man in the city, has made Honolulu his home for the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Blorkman will receive their friends after the first of September at their home in Manoa Valley, a gift of the bride's father.

Miss Thelma Murphy is entertaining informally at cards on Monday evening.

Admiral Ross and Miss Alice Ross, who came to Honolulu to spend a fortnight, are so delighted with the beauty of the islands that they have decided to remain here for another month. Admiral and Miss Ross are guests of the Couillard.

On Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Stevenson celebrated the first anniversary of their wedding with a dinner at the Rathskeller. An artistic arrangement of red carnations and maidenhair ferns formed the attractive centerpiece for the table. The guests were Mrs. M. M. Clonan, Mr. and Mrs. McKay, Miss Clonan, Miss Dolly Clonan, Mr. William Kinsler, and Mr. Phil. Dancy.

Miss Pauline Schaefer and Miss Zepha Pischel are planning to visit the volcano on the next Wilhelmina.

Mrs. Chester Hume's Musical. On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Chester Hume entertained at an informal tea for Mrs. C. B. Whitty and Miss Clementine Whitty of New York. A musical program was arranged, and Mrs. Chas.

Hall, Miss Kent and Mrs. Hume sang several solos. Among those present were Mrs. C. B. Whitty, Miss Clementine Whitty, Mrs. Walter Whitty, Miss Kent, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. J. T. Warren, Mrs. T. R. Cooper, Miss Arnold, Mrs. R. G. Moore, Mrs. George Curry, Mrs. Edna Galt, Miss Myra Galt, Mrs. Harmon Anderson, Mrs. Charles Hall, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. George Plummer, Miss Bosher, Mrs. McCormick and Mrs. Hume.

Among the recent entertainments for Miss Edith Clark and Mr. Gustav Blorkman who were married last Thursday afternoon was the pot-lupper and dance given by Miss Johnson at the Colonial Hotel on Thursday of last week. There were about sixty-five guests present.

Mrs. C. B. Whitty and Miss Clementine Whitty are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Walter Whitty at Aiea plantation.

Manoa Card Club.

The Manoa Card Club was entertained on Wednesday afternoon at the Wallana by Mrs. Philip Frear. The prize, a Japanese basket was given to Mrs. Fred Potter. Among those present were Mrs. Otto Bierbach, Mrs. Gies H. Gear, Mrs. Randolph G. Moore, Mrs. William Goets, Mrs. Lyer, Mrs. Benner, Mrs. Fred Potter, Mrs. De Freest and Mrs. Frear.

Mr. Edward Kitto of Oakland will be the guest of honor on a launch party tomorrow at which Mr. Oswald Stevens is to be host. The party sponsored by Mrs. O. A. Stevens and Mrs. J. A. Young will leave Honolulu tomorrow morning in the Waterwitch.

Mrs. J. H. Johnson's Luncheon.

Mrs. J. H. Johnson of Manoa entertained informally at luncheon yesterday afternoon at her home in Manoa. Covers were laid for six including Mrs. Lewis Edward Davis, Miss Lindsay, Mrs. C. G. Bockus, Mrs. Ernest Clark and Mrs. Johnson.

Miss Rockwell's Tea.

Miss Helen Rockwell was hostess at an informal sewing tea on Wednesday afternoon at her home on the Diamond Head road. The guests were Miss Julia McStocker, Miss Lydia McStocker, Miss Alice Ross, Miss Betty Case, Miss Doris Hutchins, Miss Edith Cowles and Miss Helen Brown.

Mrs. Frank Clark's Dinner Party.

Mrs. Frank Clark was hostess at a dinner at the Colonial Hotel on Wednesday evening for her daughter, Miss Edith Clark and for Mr. Gustav Blorkman, who were married on Thursday afternoon. The center of the table was filled with bride's roses and the cards marking the place of each guest were hand-painted with bride's slippers, trunks and dainty brides wearing tulle veils. Among those present were Miss Clark/Mr. and Mrs.

Harrington, Miss Mary Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hayselden, Miss Johnson, Mr. Blorkman, Mr. Schenkel, Mr. Jack Lyall, Mr. Percy Deverill, and the hostess.

Mr. Charles F. Loomis, whose marriage to Miss Alice Richardson was celebrated on Wednesday, was guest of honor on Tuesday evening at a farewell dinner tendered him by his bachelor friends. The table decorations were unique and appropriate. At one corner of the table a white letter "L" reposed in a heart-shaped glass formed of red carnations and diagonally across from it was an "R" in the same vivid setting. The hearts were held together with broad bands of satin ribbon that harmonized with the color scheme and was knotted in a large bow over the bank of red carnations and asparagus plumes that filled the center of the table. Covers were laid for eight, including: Mr. Charles F. Loomis, Mr. A. T. Wisdom, Mr. G. C. Banta, Mr. George McDowell, Mr. M. J. Moore, Mr. R. Cross, Mr. C. S. Forgie, Mr. A. R. Robinson, Mr. J. Reardon, Mr. G. Raymond, Mr. E. Blackshear, Mr. J. H. Becker, Mr. J. D. Canfield, Mr. L. Barter, Mr. W. Gaynor, Mr. F. N. Emmons, and Mr. A. E. Larrimer.

Mrs. Ray Rietow's Dinner Party.

Mrs. Ray Rietow was hostess at an informal dinner party last evening at her home in Waialae. The table was prettily decorated with var-colored nasturtiums and maiden hair ferns. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ginaca and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rietow.

Miss Lucy Dimond's Card Party.

On Tuesday afternoon Miss Lucy Dimond entertained informally at cards at her home in Kaimuki. Miss Dimond's guests included Miss Myrtle Schumann, Miss Rose Herbert, Miss Hazel Buckland, Miss Margaret Center, Miss Catherine Ashley, Miss Glenn McCracken, Miss Marian Chapin and Miss Martha McChesney.

The address of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Loomis, as stated in the marriage announcement this week, has been changed from 902 King street to Manoa valley.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Irwin Broughton (Olga Jungblut) are today on their way to Banff, Canada, where they will spend their honeymoon. Upon their return the will visit here briefly before going to Modesto, which is to be their home.

The wedding of the young couple last night took place at the Steiner-street home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Ohlandt, in the presence of a small company of relatives. The bride's gown was of heavy charmeuse, ivory-colored, and trimmed with old lace. A long veil of real lace was fastened to the corsage in a Juliet cap effect. The bouquet was of white cluster orchids.

The little flower girl, Helen Hamersmith, a niece of the bride, wore a pretty white lingerie frock, carried a shower of Cecil Breuner roses in her hair.

The ceremony was read by Rev. Mr. Seix of the German Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Broughton's wedding gift from her grandfather, who is president of the German Savings Bank, was a check for $5000. Besides being president of the German Savings Bank, Ohlandt is president of the National Ice Company, and has extensive interests in Southern California and in Hawaii. He is one of the pioneers of the German colony in San Francisco.

Mrs. Broughton has made her home with the Ohlandts since the death of her parents about ten years ago.

The bridegroom also is a member of a banking family. He is the son of James H. Broughton, president of the Modesto Bank, and is associated with his father in the banking and in other business affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Broughton and Miss Esto Broughton came up from Modesto for the wedding, and will remain in town for a few days.

The bride's traveling gown was of tulle, trimmed with touches of blue. A gray hat with blue feathers completed the costume.

COLLEGE DAYS A RIOT OF FUN AT LIBERTY

Another capacity house greeted the Raymond Teal Musical Comedy Company last night and College Days started off with a giggle and ended with one long scream.

Mr. Teal's usual scored the individual hit of the evening with his black face specialty.

Tonight will be the last two performances of College Days and if you don't take in the fun-producer you miss the last opportunity of seeing the funniest show Honolulu has had since Kolb and Dill.

There will be an entire change of program next Monday night. The Teal Co. will present the "Land of Manana," which will be preceded by a series of first run motion picture which are a strong feature in themselves. The show starts at 7:30 sharp tonight. Get the habit, come early and avoid the rush.

KAAI'S ORCHESTRA AND DELICIOUS DISHES AT BALTIMORE OPENING

Music by Ernest Kaa's orchestra will be the feature of the opening of the Baltimore No. 2, beginning at 8 o'clock tonight. While music is to be the chief entertainment, there is to be much else to delight the inner man.

The same satisfaction given to patrons by the Baltimore No. 1 is to be the standard for Baltimore No. 2, but in the newer place everything will be on a much larger scale. To attain this standard and merit the statement that it is "the only real place in the city to eat," no expense is to be spared, according to the promises in the advertisement of the opening. Anyway, the opening is bound to attract a crowd tonight.

COOLING NEWS—NO HELL OR BRIMSTONE

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Hell, described in the Scriptures as a "lake of fire and brimstone," was unanimously voted out of existence today by the members of the International Bible Students' Association in session at Glen Echo, near Washington.

The members went further and called upon every minister in the United States to publish in his local newspapers his views on the question and asked editors of all the newspapers to invite the ministers to publish the statements of their belief.

Brig. Gen. William P. Hall, U. S. A. retired, is the man responsible for today's action in declaring that hell exists only in the imagination of unformed people. He called on the association officially to repudiate the "fire and brimstone" doctrine. A large majority of delegates coincided with his beliefs.

Gen. Hall declared many professors in leading theological schools did not teach the "hell fire" doctrine and that clergymen privately did not believe it.
